

ALUMNI LEGACY PROGRAM

Making Central Michigan University a Family Tradition

Central Michigan University's Alumni Legacy Program honors non-Michigan resident high school seniors whose parents or grandparents are graduates of Central Michigan University. The University must verify graduation of at least one parent or grandparent for students to be eligible.

Students eligible for this program will be granted the difference between in-state and out-of-state tuition.

Potential four-year value for this program is over $51,480!

Here is an example of the value:

Out-Of-State Tuition ($753 per credit hour based on 30 credits)	$22,590
In-State Tuition ($324 per credit hour based on 30 credits)	$9,720
Approximate Annual Value of Award	$12,870

(Based on 2008/2009 Rates)

To be considered for this special tuition rate, prospective students should fill out the section of the admissions application that asks for their parents or grandparents names, social security numbers, and dates of their attendance at CMU.

For an admission application and to find out more about the program contact the Admission's Office toll-free at 1-888-392-0007 or visit their Web site www.cmich.edu/Admissions.htm.

We look forward to having your children or grandchildren here at Central Michigan University!
