Results, conclusions, and discoveries

Problem-based project in MGT 667

Students were organized into teams to create and present a paper that addresses international issues in a case provided to them. The paper and presentation focuses on recommendations for change and the application of key concepts to achieve changes. The overall score was 94% for the class.

Data were not available in 2004-2005 for any of the other courses.

4. Use of Results. Did the results lead to program changes? If so, describe the changes made. If not, describe why changes were not needed.

No changes were made.

5. Dissemination of results, conclusions, and discoveries. How and with whom were the results shared?

Findings were shared with appropriate instructors, advisers, and program administrators.
