

CHANGE in the MAJOR in ADMINISTRATION

Beginning in Spring I 2007, the Core Courses for the BS and BAA degrees with a Major in Administration will change.

A student admitted through the 2006-2007 Bulletin may choose to continue with the current program and will have to opportunity to complete ACC 201/202 and FIN 332. The student should be aware that ACC 201/202 and FIN 332 will be offered in the Centers through Fall 2007. ACC201/202 and FIN 332 will be offered online at least through Spring 2008.

A previously admitted student may select the 2007-2008 CMU Off-Campus Bulletin and fulfill the new requirements. ACC 203 (3), ACC 204 (1), and FIN 303 (3) will be offered through DDL in Spring I 2007. These courses will be offered at all locations where UG degrees are offered after May 2007. Any student admitted after May 15, 2007 will be required to fulfill the new Major in Administration Core Courses.

A student should contact a CMU Undergraduate Advisor if they have questions about the change in core courses for the Major in Administration.
