

PIANO EXPLORATION AND COMPREHENSIVE MUSICIANSHIP

This one-semester course is open to 6-7 year old students who wish to learn to play the piano. All students will meet on Monday's from 4:15-5:15 p.m. The first 30-minutes of the class will be taught by Dr. Adrienne Wiley and will focus on general musicianship, theory, and ear training. The following 30-minutes will be taught by undergraduate and/or graduate piano pedagogy students and will provide each student with a private lesson. After the first semester of instruction, students may continue to study piano privately with their CMU student-teacher in subsequent semesters.

Program requirements:

- Students must have a piano or keyboard with 88 keys in their home.
- Students must be able to attend the entire Monday class (4:15-5:15 p.m.)
- Course materials will be an additional cost of approximately $25.00 payable to Dr. Wiley
- All students must be committed to the entire one-semester course
- Cost: $200
- Limited Enrollment

For questions or additional information, please call or e-mail K Schmittler at 989-774-7141.