

THE PART-TIME FACULTY ORIENTATION COMING ONLINE!

The new Faculty Orientation is coming online soon! This orientation is for current part-time temporary faculty as well as all new faculty that are approved to teach for ProfEd.

This long-awaited program will welcome part-time faculty to our team and is designed to provide the first time, as well as the experienced instructor, with the information they need to get started and to guide them throughout their teaching experience.

We hope you will take a look on January 5, 2009, when the new program will be launched on the Faculty Resource Center (FRC) Web site at <http://www.cel.cmich.edu/faculty>. There will be a Faculty Orientation link on the sidebar that takes you to the program. We welcome your feedback. Please contact Carmen Ceja-Blohm or Stephanie Bechtel if you have questions concerning this new program.
